ARBOR

The Arbor is a hip beer and wine garden, the perfect place to gather your crew and eat, drink and enjoy the Fremantle sunshine! Catering for up to 400 patrons over 3 levels, enjoy a drink amongst the greenery or a feed from our delicious modern pub menu.

.MR CHAPPLE.

Mr Chapple is a trendy brekky joint, come craft bar with delicious bites and a rooftop bar that looks down the cappuccino strip. Located within the 1924 Beers Building in the heart of Fremantle, join us morning, noon or night. Who is Mr Chapple?

TONIC+
GINGER

Tonic + Ginger does south east Asian-inspired fare in a larger than life way! Seating 120 people over two levels within the 1902 built Fremantle Synagogue, take a culinary journey sampling hot, sour, salty and sweet plates from renowned head chef, Leigh Power.

L'Chaim, meaning toast to life, is an intimate cocktail bar where Perth's best bartenders hang on their days off! Hidden deep below the Fremantle synagogue, take a step back in time and immerse yourself in a world of fine cocktails and all round good times.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

HOW TO BOOK

To book a function at The Old Synagogue, please complete and return a copy of the booking form to info@theoldsynagogue.com.au. Your booking is only confirmed once we receive a signed booking form and the deposit is paid. We do not accept tentative bookings.

The Old Synagogue is open from 7am – midnight, 7 days a week, and we take function bookings at most times. For larger functions, we are able to open sections of the venue that may otherwise be closed at that time for exclusive use. Please note that function availability at peak times (Friday/Saturday nights) is quite limited.

VENUE HIRE FEES / MINIMUM SPEND

The Old Synagogue does not charge a hire fee to secure any of our spaces. Instead, each of our spaces have a minimum spend amount which is payable prior to your event. We do not allow for minimum spend amounts to be refunded or paid by guests on the day. For more information please contact our functions team.

DEPOSIT AND FINAL PAYMENT

A 25% deposit is required to secure your booking, with the balance payable in full a minimum of 10 days prior to your function. The Old Synagogue reserves the right to cancel the booking if payment is not received within the prescribed time.

Payments can be made via bank transfer or credit card. Please note Visa/MasterCard incur a 1.5% processing fee, and AMEX a 2.5% processing fee. Even if paying via bank transfer, credit card details are required as part of your booking form, which will be used to cover any ancillary costs associated with your function should they occur, including increases to bar tab limits, or additional catering.

FINAL CONFIRMATION

Confirmation of final numbers and food/beverage selections, including dietary requirements, is required no later than 10 days prior to your event. If this information is not received, our team will make selections on your behalf.

MUSIC

If you are hiring a private space for exclusive use, the music choice is yours. All exclusive use spaces have capabilities for microphones/PA for speeches, and you can have a DJ or live performers. Alternatively bring in your own iPod and link it to our in-house system, or we can do it for you. All musical performers are responsible for bringing their own equipment. Please discuss with your coordinator before booking any live entertainment.

FOOD AND BEVERAGE

Menus at The Old Synagogue change seasonally based on the best fresh produce available, hence sample function menus provided are subject to change. In order for The Old Synagogue to fully comply with state food preparation and liquor laws, all food and beverages must be provided by our venue. The only exception to this rule is celebratory cakes, which incur a cakeage fee of $4 per person. Candles/sparklers and cake toppers are not provided by the venue and must be supplied if required.

Please note that functions held on a public holiday incur a 10% surcharge.

DECORATIONS AND FURNITURE

Flowers, decorations, furniture and lighting are all welcome at The Old Synagogue for your event. The responsibility for delivery, set-up and timely removal of these items is that of the function organiser, not The Old Synagogue staff. All items must be removed from the premises either at the end of the event unless other arrangements have been made with our function manager.

The use of nails, pins, staples, glue tack, and tape adhesives are not permitted. Should you need to place signage on the walls, please contact our functions coordinator for a list of approved materials. Please note that glitter, rice, and other small confetti style items are not permitted, including balloons containing confetti or glitter.

Please note that decorations and furniture that require set up are only permitted for exclusive use function.

FOOD TIMING

The Old Synagogue is not responsible for food timing issues that may arise from your guests or event schedule running behind. The timing of food service will be discussed and agreed with your function co-ordinator during the booking process, and the kitchen will do its best to work to that schedule, however at times unavoidable delays may occur.

OTHER FUNCTIONS

The Old Synagogue is a large venue, and we reserve the right to have multiple functions running concurrently within different areas of the venue.

DRESS CODE

All guests must abide by The Old Synagogue's smart casual dress code, which prohibits inappropriate or offensive clothing regardless of the function theme or occasion.

CANCELLATION

Deposit amounts are non-refundable.

Once your booking is confirmed, changes to time or date of functions and bookings must be submitted at least 10 days prior to your event, and are subject to availability.

If your function is cancelled inside 10 days one the balance is paid, the amount is non-refundable as the space has already been set aside for your event. We will, however, endeavour to accommodate for your event at a later date, again pending availability. Depending on when the cancellation occurs, there may be additional costs associated with rescheduling your function.

In the event of a cancellation due to COVID-19, you will be given a full refund of any monies paid or the option to reschedule to an alternative available date.

DAMAGES

As the function (or event) organiser, you are liable for all costs, expenses, damage and loss resulting from any act caused by you, one of your guests, or external contractors hired as part of your event.

This is inclusive of any damage to the building, furniture, fixtures and fittings (including plants and electronic equipment) prior to, during and after the event. Should damages occur, you will first be contacted by your function coordinator, then an invoice will be sent to your nominated email address which is due within 7 days. We reserve the right to charge your nominated credit card if the invoice becomes overdue.

PERSONAL BELONGINGS AND GIFTS

Whilst every attempt will be made to look after anything left at The Old Synagogue, will not be held responsible for any equipment or personal belongings left prior to or after your function.

RSA AND UNDERAGE GUESTS

The Old Synagogue complies strictly with WA's Responsible Service of Alcohol Legislation, and all staff are trained accordingly. Staff may refuse to serve alcohol to any person who they believe to be intoxicated (including those on a beverage package), and due to WA licensing laws that person will also be asked to leave the premises.

Under WA law, all guests under the age of 18 must be accompanied by their legal guardian and supervised at all times. All guests must be 18 or over to consume alcohol and are expected to provide legal identification where necessary.

WET WEATHER

Some of the most popular function areas at The Old Synagogue are outdoor spaces, and whilst they are the perfect setting for most events, bad weather has the potential to impact these functions. In the case of bad weather, we will make every attempt to relocate the function to a covered area, however this will be subject to availability and cannot be guaranteed. Should a wet weather plan be critical to your function, please ensure this is discussed and confirmed with your function co-ordinator during the booking process.
